The Honorable John J. McCloy
Adviser to the President on Disarmament
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Jack:

Your letter of 1 February on the urgent need to prepare a position with respect to a nuclear test ban has been given careful consideration. We will be happy to participate in working group level coordination of the US position on this matter with the United States Disarmament Administration.

Dr. Herbert Scoville, my Assistant Director for Scientific Intelligence, will serve as the point of contact for this purpose. He has participated for our Agency in all of the work connected with the test ban negotiations and is currently serving on the Flak Panel.

We will cooperate in dealing with this problem with a full sense of the urgency required.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Dear Jack:

I have your letter of 1 February on the urgent need to prepare and coordinate a position with respect to a nuclear test ban. We will be happy to participate in working group level coordination of the US policy position on this matter with the US Disarmament Administration.

I am asking Dr. Herbert Scoville, my Assistant Director for Scientific Intelligence to serve as the point of contact for this purpose. He has participated for our agency in all of the work connected with the test ban negotiations and is currently serving on the Fisk Panel.

I assure you that we will cooperate in dealing with this problem with a full sense of the urgency required.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
